

Special Invitation: Meet Director General Paul Chang

Taipei Economic and Cultural Office (TECO) in Honolulu

Paul Chang, Director General of the Taipei Economic and Cultural Office (TECO) in Honolulu, recently began his diplomatic assignment in Honolulu.

Hawaii firms interested in learning more about business opportunities in Taiwan and China are encouraged to attend this special presentation.

October 20, 2010
(Wednesday)

9:00 a.m. Registration
9:30 – 10:30 am
Program

No. 1 Capitol District Building
1st Floor Multi-purpose Room
250 South Hotel Street
Honolulu

Please RSVP by October 18, 2010
587-2750 (phone), 586-2589 (fax), lkawamoto@dbedt.hawaii.gov (email)

Director General Chang will cover the highlights of the recently signed Economic Cooperation Framework Agreement (ECFA). The agreement will help to normalize trade relations between Taiwan and China and paves the way for further talks between the two sides on issues such as trade in goods and services, investment protection and trade dispute resolution.

This presentation is an opportunity for you to meet Director General Chang and his staff and to learn about new developments in doing business in Taiwan and China.

Director General Chang served as the Senior Official of Chinese Taipei (Taiwan) to the Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation (APEC) from 2008-2010 and the Deputy Chief Negotiator of the Office of Trade Negotiations from 2007-2008. He earned his M.A. degree from the Elliot School of International Affairs at George Washington University, and is serving as the Taiwan government's representative in Honolulu since July 1, 2010.

EVENT PARTNERS

